

In the summer of 2008, BESTech was asked to help with a severe grease problem at a private wastewater treatment facility in Jaurez Quintana, Mexico. We designed a treatment program and only two weeks later, the manager of the facility reported a 50% reduction (from 6" grease cap to a 3" grease cap).